The budget for each affiliate program varies. If you would like to use financial aid for your program, it is your responsibility to provide program pricing information to your Study Abroad Advisor in order to create a budget customized for your program. The affiliate program fee will be billed through the ISU Student Accounts Office.

* Your Affiliate Program Fee will be divided among study abroad instructional and non-instructional charges. These charges are based on billing information provided by the affiliate company. If no specific cost breakdown is given, 60% of your program fee will appear as instructional charges, 40% will appear as non-instructional charges. What is included in the affiliate program fee will vary, see affiliate program page for details.

Please note that this itemized budget sheet is a per term estimate accurate at the time of publication and is subject to change. The "Estimated Independent Costs Paid Directly by the Student" section is based on estimates and it addresses basic necessities and light to moderate personal expenses. Costs can fluctuate based on changes in currency exchange rates, tuition and fees increases, varying personal lifestyles, etc.
